Personal data we process

iBi Foundation processes your personal data because you use our services and/or because you provide these data to us. Below is an overview of all the personal data we process:

- First and last name
- Gender
- Date of birth
- Address details, country
- Language
- Telephone number
- Email address
- IP address
- Bank account number
- Other personal data that you actively provide, for example by creating a profile on this website, in correspondence and by telephone.
- Location data
- Data about your activities on our website
- Internet browser and device type

Special and/or sensitive personal data we process

Our website and/or service has no intention of collecting data about website visitors who are younger than 16 years of age, unless they have permission from parents or guardians. However, we cannot check whether a visitor is over 16 years of age. We recommend, therefore, that parents are involved in their children's online activities in order to prevent data from being collected about children without parental consent. If you believe that we have collected personal data about a minor without consent, please contact us at join@ibifoundation.nl and we will delete those data.

For what purpose and on what basis do we process personal data?

iBi Foundation processes your personal data for the following purposes:

- To process your payment
- To send you our newsletter
- To call or email you if this is necessary to perform our services
- To inform you about changes to our services and products
- To offer you the possibility to create an account
- To deliver goods and services to you
- iBi Foundation analyses your behaviour on the website in order to improve the website and to tailor the range of products and services to your preferences.
- iBi Foundation tracks your browsing behaviour on various websites, which allows us to tailor our products and services to your needs.
- iBi Foundation also processes personal data if we are legally obliged to do so, such as data we need for our tax return

Automated decision making (where applicable, mandatory to mention and adapt) iBi Foundation makes /or no decisions based on automated processing decisions about matters that can have (significant) consequences for people. These are decisions that are taken by computer programs or systems, without involving a person (eg a iBi Foundation employee).

How long do we store personal data for?

iBi Foundation stores your personal data for no longer than is strictly necessary to achieve the purposes for which your data are collected. We apply the following retention periods for the following (categories of) personal data:

Personal Data	Reason	Retention period
First and last name	To address you appropriately when returning your call or sending you a message by email or by post	Indefinite period

IP address	To determine your location when you visit the website	Indefinite period
Data about your activities on our website	For analysis for the purpose of website optimisation	50 months
Internet browser/device type	For analysis for the purpose of website optimisation	50 months

Sharing personal data with third parties

Of course, iBi Foundation only shares personal data with third parties when this is necessary to conduct our agreement or to measure up to legal obligation.

Cookies, or similar technologies, we use iBi Foundation uses functional, analytical and tracking cookies. A cookie is a small text file that is stored in the browser of your computer, tablet or smartphone when you visit this website for the first time. iBi Foundation uses cookies with a purely technical functionality. They ensure that the website functions properly and that your preferred settings, for example, are remembered. These cookies are also used to make the website function properly and to optimise it. In addition, we place cookies that track your browsing behaviour so that we can offer you tailored content and advertisements. When you visited our website for the first time, we informed you about these cookies and asked you for your consent to place them. You can opt out of cookies by changing the settings of your internet browser so that it no longer stores cookies. In addition, you can delete all information previously stored through your browser's settings. For more information, see the various websites listed at the bottom of this Cookie Statement. Cookies are also placed on this website by third parties. These include advertisers and/or social media companies.

For more information about cookies, please see our Cookie Statement.

Statistical research

iBi Foundation aims to provide you with websites and/or applications of the highest quality. This requires iBi Foundation to conduct regular statistical research, allowing it to make changes to its websites and/or applications, where necessary.

iBi Foundation may use your data for this statistical research. Only specially designated employees of iBi Foundation have access to your data for this purpose. The results of the research are always aggregated. This means that the data in the research results cannot be traced back to you personally.

Access, modify or delete data

You have the right to access, correct or delete your personal data. In addition, you have the right to withdraw any consent for the data processing or to object to the processing of your personal data by iBi Foundation and you have the right to data transferability. This means that you may submit a request to us to send the personal data that we have about you in a computer file to you or to another organisation you have specified. You may send a request for access, correction, deletion, data transfer of your personal data or a request for the withdrawal of your consent or objection to the processing of your personal data to join@ibifoundation.nl. iBi Foundation would also like to point out that you have the option of lodging a complaint with the national supervisory authority, the Dutch Data Protection Authority.

How we secure personal data

iBi Foundation is committed to the protection of your data and takes appropriate measures to prevent misuse, loss, unauthorised access, unwanted disclosure and unauthorised alteration. If you feel that your data are not secure, or if there are indications of misuse, please contact us at join@ibifoundation.nl.

iBi Foundation has taken the following measures to protect your personal data:

- Security software, such as a virus scanner and firewall.
- TLS (formerly SSL). We send your data via a secure internet connection. You can tell by the "https" address bar and the padlock in the address bar.
- DNSSEC is an additional security (addition to DNS) for converting a domain name (#company_website) to the linked IP address (server name); it is provided with a digital signature. You can have this signature checked automatically. In this way we prevent you from being redirected to a false IP address.

Questions?

COOKIE STATEMENT

What is a cookie?

We make use of cookies on this website. A cookie is a small simple file that is sent with pages of this website [and/or Flash applications] and stored by your browser on the hard drive of your computer. The information stored therein may be returned to our servers on a subsequent visit.

Which cookies does iBi Foundation use and for what purpose?

Use of necessary cookies

The use of a necessary cookie enables us to recognise you when you visit our website again. The website can therefore be specially tailored to your preferences. If you have given permission for the placing of cookies, we can also remember this by means of a cookie. This way, you do not have to reselect your preferences, saving you time and making the use of our website more pleasant. You can delete necessary cookies via the settings of your browser.

Use of session cookies

By using a session cookie we can see which parts of the website you have viewed during this visit. This enables us to adapt our service as much as possible to the browsing behaviour of our visitors. These cookies are automatically deleted once you close your web browser.

Google Analytics

Our website is used to place a cookie belonging to the US firm Google, as part of the Analytics services. We use this service to keep track of and receive reports on how visitors use the website. Google may disclose these data to third parties in the event that it is legally obliged to do so, or insofar as third parties process data on its behalf. We have no influence on this. We have not given Google permission to use the obtained analytics information for other Google services.

The information Google collects is anonymised to the extent possible. By default, your IP address is not included. If you give your consent for the use of your IP address, your website visit will be registered up to the level of place of residence. The collected data are transferred to and stored by Google on servers in the United States. Google abides by the Privacy Shield principles and is a member of the Privacy Shield programme of the U.S. Department of Commerce. This implies an adequate level of protection for the processing of any personal data.

Right to access and rectification or erasure of your data

You have the right to request access to and rectification or erasure of your data. For more information, please see our contact page. To prevent abuse we may request you to identify yourself adequately. In the case of access to personal data linked to a cookie, you must submit a copy of the relevant cookie together with your request. You can find this in your browser settings.

Enabling, disabling and deleting cookies

More information about enabling, disabling and deleting cookies in your browser can be found in the instructions and/or by using the Help function of your browser. You can easily change the cookie preferences you chose when you first visited the website. Check the cookie-policy page to reset the cookie preferences.
